

Announcements      Sunday, November 7th, 2021

Life is a series of new beginnings! Do you remember your first doll, your first bicycle, your first day at school, first kiss, first job? Do you remember your first loss? Your first goldfish, your first kitty? Your first loved one? With every hello there is a goodbye.

Is that the end? On this All-Saints Sunday, we'll learn what a dead saint says about that.
